Scripture | Mark 5:21-43

Message | Life Interrupted
Rev. Enoch Yim

Thank you for gathering with us today! The following questions have been prepared as invitations for you to lean into what God may be saying to you through today's time of worship..

1. When you are going through a difficult time or dealing with a painful memory, what is your typical instinct? Do you tend to hide it, or do you share it? What makes you choose one over the other?
2. Larry Crabb describes the "Lower Room" of our soul as the place where our fear, trauma response, and self-protection live. When someone you love is acting out of fear, anger, or withdrawal, how hard is it for you to see past that behaviour to who they truly are in Christ?
3. How can we do a better job of calling out the "Upper Room" (the goodness, beauty, and identity in Christ) in each other, especially when someone is actively struggling or feeling ashamed?
4. "Soul Talk" requires us to listen deeply without judging or formatting our next response. What is the biggest obstacle in your own life to being a fully present, non-judgmental listener for someone else?

Closing Exercise (5 Minutes)

Go around the circle and complete this sentence: "To feel completely safe here, the one thing I need from this group is..."

If you are able to, we encourage you to share a reflection or prayer request with another person that you would like to keep you accountable for in the week to come.
